Case No. 11-29064-JES

MOTION OF FDIC AS RECEIVER FOR LEGACY BANK FOR RELIEF FROM THE AUTOMATIC STAY OR, ALTERNATIVELY, FOR ADEQUATE PROTECTION

FDIC as receiver for Legacy Bank, the current mortgagee of record, its successors, servicing agents and/or assignees (hereinafter collectively and at all times material hereto “the movant”), through its attorneys, Gray & Associates, LLP, hereby moves the court for relief from the automatic stay pursuant to §362 of the Bankruptcy Code or, alternatively, for adequate protection and, in support of said motion, alleges as follows:

1. The movant is the current holder of notes and mortgages granted by the debtors to Legacy Bank with respect to the following parcels of real estate owned by the debtors (collectively “the properties”):

Property Address

3743-3743A E. Plankinton Ave., Cudahy, WI
4267 N. 70th St., Milwaukee, WI
3453 N. 46th St., Milwaukee, WI
4506 S. Jasper Ave., Milwaukee, WI
4405 W. Townsend St., Milwaukee, WI

Gray & Associates, L.L.P. is attempting to collect a debt on its client's behalf and any information it obtains will be used for that purpose. If you previously received a discharge in a chapter 7 bankruptcy case, this should not be construed as an attempt to hold you personally liable for the debt.

3748 N. 57th Street, Milwaukee, WI
4135 N. 15th St., Milwaukee, WI
3430 N. 44th St., Milwaukee, WI
7330 W. Medford Ave., Milwaukee, WI
2435 S. Logan Ave., Milwaukee, WI

5375 N. Sherman Blvd., Milwaukee, WI
711 Summit Ave., Milwaukee, WI

2. When the debtors signed the notes and granted the mortgages upon the properties to Legacy Bank, they also granted assignments of rent to Legacy Bank for each of the properties.

3. The mortgages and assignments of rent were each recorded and therefore perfected under state law years before the commencement of this bankruptcy case.

4. Upon information and belief, on or about October 18, 2010, Legacy Bank sent letters to the tenants of all of the properties indicating that it was exercising its contractual right to an assignment of rent due to the debtors' default with respect to monthly mortgage payments. It is believed that Legacy Bank collected rents from the tenants of most if not all of the properties.

5. Legacy Bank subsequently went into receivership and the movant has been the receiver ever since.

6. After the movant became receiver for all of the assets of Legacy Bank in general and the properties in particular, the movant sent letters to the tenants of the properties advising them of its status as the receiver for the properties and directing the tenants to make their monthly rental payments to it rather than to Legacy Bank.

7. After the movant sent these letters to the properties' tenants, the debtors filed the petition commencing this bankruptcy case.

8. That since the commencement of this bankruptcy case, the movant has received rental payments from the properties. These funds are being held pending further order of the court.

9. Because the debtors have defaulted on the mortgages upon all seventeen (17) properties and are not making monthly mortgage payments or adequate protection payments to the movant, these rents constitute adequate protection for the movant.

10. The loss of adequate protection of the movant's interest in the properties entitles the movant to relief from the automatic stay under §362(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, so that the movant can enforce its rights under the mortgages, assignments of rent and state law, including its ability to continue to collect rents.

11. Upon information and belief, the debtors may have no equity in any or all of the properties in question. The lack of equity entitles the movant to relief from the automatic stay under §362(d)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code so that the movant can enforce its rights under the mortgages, assignment of rents and state law, including its ability to continue to collect rents.

12. In the event the court denies the movant's request for relief from the automatic stay and directs that the post-petition rents received by the movant be handed over to the debtors, the movant seeks the alternative award of adequate protection of its interests in the rents and the properties in question.

WHEREFORE, the movant requests that the automatic stay be terminated pursuant to §362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code so that the movant may protect, exercise and enforce its rights pursuant to said mortgages and assignments of rent, or, alternatively, an award of adequate protection, that the movant's legal fees and costs associated with this motion be approved and that protection, that the movant's legal fees and costs associated with this motion be approved and that any order entered pursuant to this motion be effective immediately upon its entry and for such further relief as may be just and equitable.
